Sponsored by the

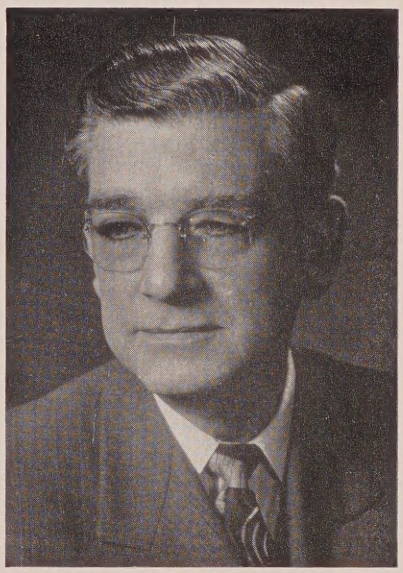
CAPITAL UNIVERSITY

Columbus, Ohio



To George A. Smallsreed, L.L.D., member of the Board of Regents since 1941, its chairman since 1944, alumnus and good friend of Capital, we humbly dedicate this book. It is through the devotion of all such loyal alumni that Cap. continues as educator of today's youth.

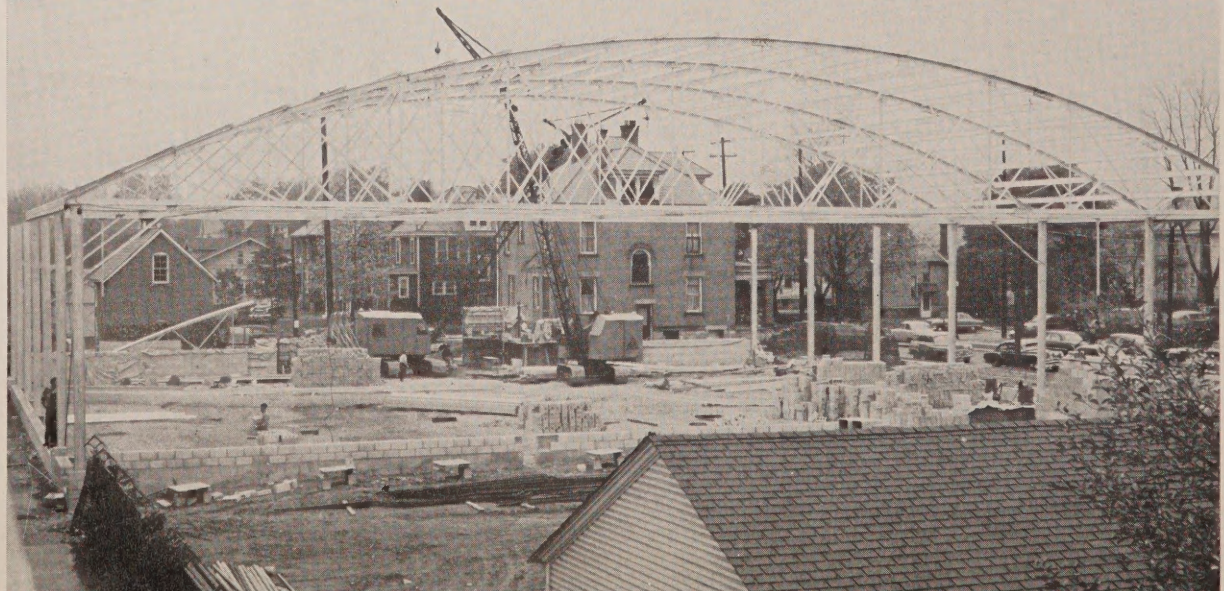
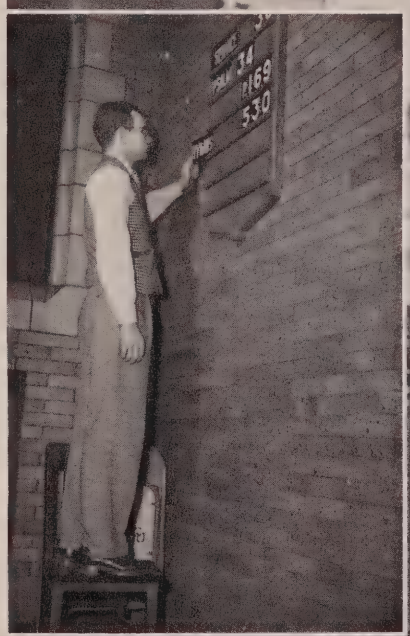
Back to school . . . What's new? . . . the Physical Education Building is beginning to show . . . new people, too . . . Frosh breaking into social life . . . breaking out of the Dorm Store with books . . .



Breaking in their books at the library . . . Vespers begin with three services each week . . . and at last . . . the Big Team goes into battle . . .



Goblins and hobgobblins . . . and the end of October brings Homecoming time . . . when rooms are cleaned for open house . . .

And floats are planned, worried about, struggled with . . . then the Day . . . mums for all . . . cold weather, too . . . the climax to the weekend and much preparation . . . cookies . . . punch . . . smooth dancing . . .

Football ends . . . Cap receives the last kick . . . the trophy from Otterbein for 1950-51 . . . Always working ahead . . . New Student Day brings prospects for next year . . . Intramural basketball . . .

Citizens of Cap and the world . . . giving their blood . . . so all may be free to enjoy life . . . like Club Collegienne . . .

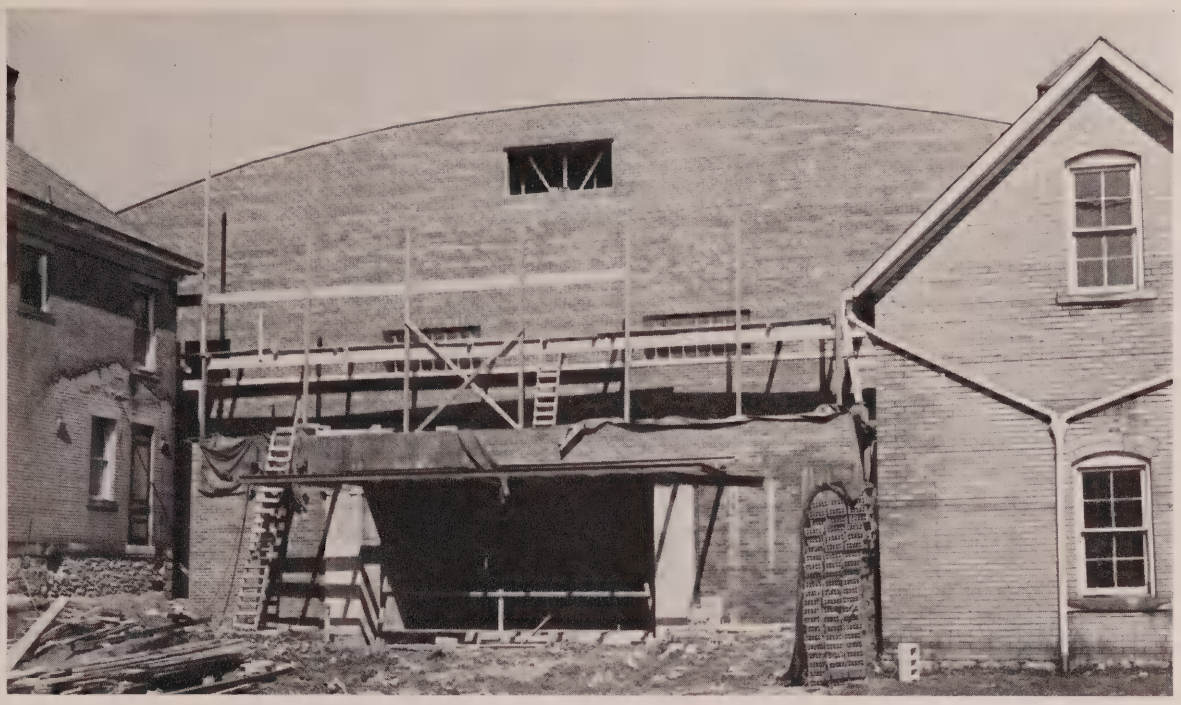
Best liked day in winter . . . Christmas is coming . . . Santa says so . . . DPA sings about it annually . . . the tree is trimmed in the Union . . . joy is everywhere . . .

Chaplain Owens is happy to see Santa and to sit on his knee . . . all students look forward to the final service . . . Christmas Vespers . . .

Back from home . . . tired, but registering, not resigning . . . and it's good to be among friends . . . in the sea of people by the mailboxes . . .

But winter does take its toll in colds . . . which don't seem to affect those who have to be "On Campus" . . . could be this is the cause of it all . . .

Before Ash Wednesday . . . Cap's own Mardi Gras closes the social season . . . The beginning of Lent . . . special services . . . the period of individual worship . . . preceding the Christian's most glorious festival . . . Easter . . .



And now it's spring . . . what can be shown for all the effort? . . . a new physical education building . . . and a Capitalian staff . . . tired . . . speechless . . . victorious . . .

. . . Seminary

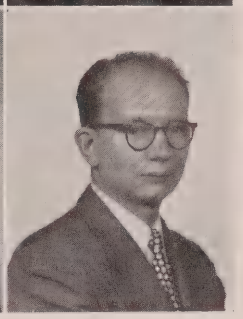
EDWARD G. FENDT, D.D.
Dean of Theological Seminary, Professor of Systematic Theology

Across College Avenue from the main campus stands Divinity Hall. There, young men from all over the country study and live to prepare themselves for the ministry.

Capital Seminary supplies pastors to over half of the vacant pulpits in the American Lutheran Church. When enrollments are high and space is limited, the faculty doesn't despair. Their friends of the Church and the school build more accommodations for their all-important work.

The classroom wing of the original plans for Divinity Hall is nearing completion, and will be dedicated next fall. Offices for professors, visual aids rooms, and recreation rooms along with the badly needed classrooms will then be ready for occupancy.

The Faculty



PAUL H. BUEHRING
Dean Emeritus of Seminary, Professor of Historical Theology

JACOB A. DELL
Professor of Practical Theology

G. H. DOERMANN
Professor of Christian Education

JOHN O. LANG
Lecturer in Liturgics

THEODORE S. LIEFELD
Professor of New Testament Theology

HERBERT C. LEUPOLD
Professor of Old Testament Theology

ROBERT SPIELER
Instructor of Historical and Systematic Theology

Seminary Association

The Seminary Association concerns all seminary students. Its duties are many as any seminarian can tell. Designation of funds, the preaching program, social activities, and the governing of some of the DH policies are among its duties.

Seminary Chorus

Well on its way to becoming a recognized touring group of the Campus, the Seminary Chorus under the directorship of Donald Good has this year for the first time in many years undertaken engagements outside the immediate vicinity of Columbus. Among these were concerts at Obetz, Portsmouth, Fremont, Toledo and Detroit, Michigan. Local engagements included the Nurse's Home, the Penitentiary, and the Art Gallery.

On May 4, the Chorus held their home-service at Christ Church, and this year, another first, the Seminary's own Chorus will sing at their commencement.

Chapel

Each day of the week, during the college chapel period, the seminarians and faculty worship together in Divinity Hall Chapel. On one of these days a seminary professor has the meditation; another day, a student; on a third day the entire time is devoted to matins and other liturgy; the remaining periods are decided upon by whoever is in charge.

The seminary chapel is a combination of laboratory for the student and spiritual communion for students and faculty of the seminary.

Seminary Homecoming

Under the sceptre of Queen Rhododendron, on November 2 around eleven o'clock in the evening, the Homecoming festivities migrated across College Avenue, where the Queen was officially crowned. Mr. Bill Range, president of the Seminary Association, did the honors with all the pomp and pageantry belonging to the occasion.

With magical music by the quartette and the essence of cigar incense wafting on the breeze, court slaves bowed to their queen who was still veiled as is the tradition of monarchs. The unveiling and ascension of the queen, Ron Wolter, climaxed the evening.

Hein Lectures

On December 5 and 6 the annual Hein Memorial Lectures were presented. This year the speaker was Dr. H. Richard Niebuhr, Professor of Ethics, Yale Divinity School. Dr. Niebuhr presented a series of lectures on the subject, "Christian Interpretation of History."

These lectures, held each year, are presented at Capital and Wartburg in memory of C. C. Hein. Dr. Hein was a renowned Lutheran leader and was president of the Joint Synod of Ohio before the merger in 1930, and continued as president of the American Lutheran Church until 1937.

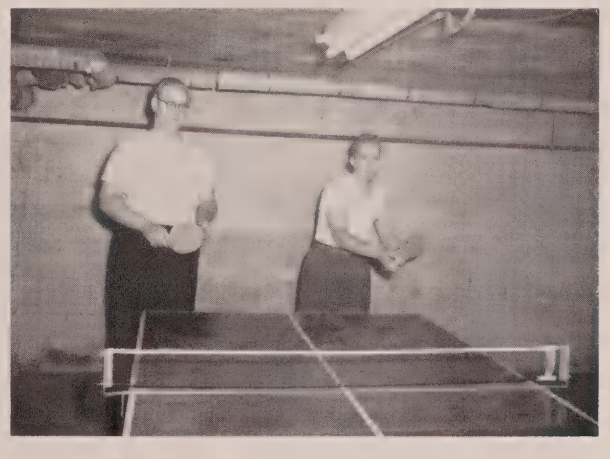
Around the Courtyard

DH is home to many men for three years, more or less. They relax here, and they study here. Mostly they LIVE here. Part of their life is reading and studying the Bible. . . .

. . . but they relax from studies by using the pool table in the basement, just like home.

. . . . . and time comes when some menial tasks must be done, such as washing . . .

. . . and then more fun, ping pong or conversation will do . . .



. . . before it's time to study for the next day.

... Organizations

Campus Council

A group of twenty active members called Campus Council form one of the most influential student groups on campus. The mem-members are elected representatives from the classes, and also the class presidents.

As the Campus Council increases its experience, ability, and efforts, it is entrusted with increased responsibility and importance on campus. Its duties, specifically, are to plan, coordinate, and administer all-campus programs in the areas of student life, recreation, and activities. This includes supervising campus elections and drives; participating in the formulation and upholding of campus rules, regulations, traditions, and standards of Christian conduct; and supervising special functions such as Homecoming and May Day. It functions as a means of mutual consultation between administration, faculty, and student body, acting in such disciplinary cases as are referred to it or otherwise come within its jurisdiction.

Through its representatives, it also serves in an advisory capacity and participates in the functions of the autonomous boards and committees.

When a student pays for his activities ticket, he seldom realizes all the people concerned with the listings, the prices, and the dates. Besides obtaining admission to sports events, the activities ticket subscribes to the Chimes, the Concert-Lecture Series and many other activities.

The BCA or Board of College Activities plans the activities budget, approves dates, and handles funds and awards of the BCA organizations. Prof. Arthur Grossman is chairman of BCA. Other Faculty Representatives are Proffessors Heinke and Brockman, and Dr. Fred Bernlohr. The student members are three elected from the student body at large and two appointed by Campus Council. These students are: Bill Schamadan, Tom Williams, Dale Falknor, Al Hausmann, Pauline Hagen.

NCP

National Collegiate Players, or Pi Epsilon Delta by Greek letters, is the newest organization on Capital's campus. Thirteen active members received their charter to this national honorary fraternity on November 4, 1951. NCP is still in its infant stage, but it has this year assisted in installations of new chapters and arranged for the initiation of new members of its own for next fall.

National Collegiate Players provides the theatre-minded people on campus the opportunity to become affiliated with a national organization, and through this affiliation to stand as a college unit in national movements for the betterment of drama in the United States.

Their local influence will be felt in the striving to raise the standards of college and university theatres by recognizing group and individual efforts in theatre arts.

The Christmas season at Cap would be sorely lacking in spirit without the traditional tree-trimming, carol sing, and the culmination of the week's events, the inspiring Christmas vesper service. These are sponsored by the Christian Student Fellowship, or CSF as it is known on campus.

This group was organized in 1946 to unite the students of all faiths. All Christians, regardless of denomination, find a place in CSF.

Besides the Christmas events and the monthly meetings, CSF also sponsors weekly vespers, the campus Sunday School, and Religious Emphasis Week. Through these media are promoted the spirit of Christian fellowship and the advancement of Christian living on campus.

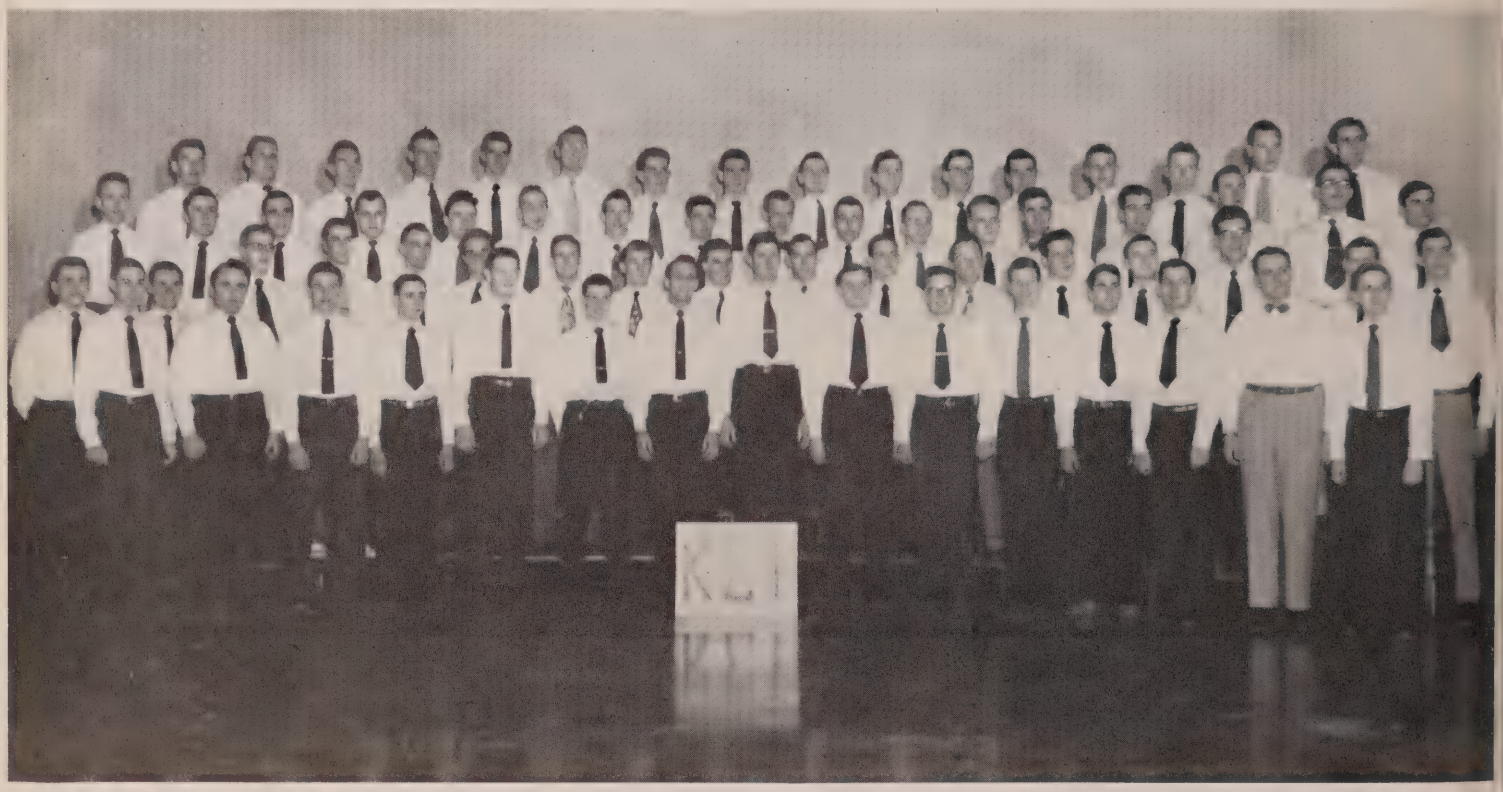
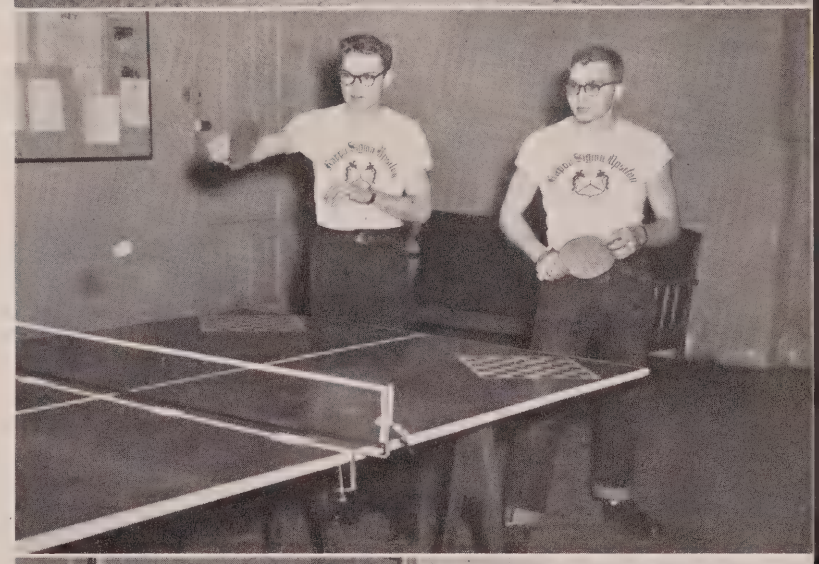
Kappa Sigma Upsilon





Kappa Sigma Upsilon, or more familiarly known as KSU, is a non-secret, independent fraternity open to all CU male students. The basis for their organization is, briefly, fellowship, scholarship, and service.

In line with the last of these principles, this year's pledge candidates cleaned and planted a field for recreation at the North Community Church. Further evidence of this recently revitalized group is noted in the addition of a pledge pin and a coat of arms.

As with any fraternity, certain yearly traditions become established. There can be no argument that initiation week, the winter formal, and the football pep rallies sponsored by this organization have become a part of the Cap student's life.

Executive Council

Kappa Sigma Theta

By the promotion of KST's Big-Little Sister program, incoming freshmen have an opportunity to learn about life at Cap and to feel at home when they arrive here. Among a host of activities offered by KST are the freshman mixer, fall fashion show, hen party, Sweetheart Formal and the spring carnival.

The women behind these undertakings are Kappa Sigma Thetas, and can be any women students on Cap's campus, for this social sorority was organized for all women students. Members of KST work for the promotion of ideals of Cap among women students in a fourfold social program of recreation, education, leadership and welfare.

Kappa Alpha Pi

Cap's only honorary scholastic fraternity is Kappa Alpha Pi. The membership is ever changing, since eligibility for this honor is extended to those students who have been on the honor roll the preceding semester.

Although existing at present in name only, an annual dinner is held in the spring to give recognition to those who have been on the honor roll for seven semesters. Those students who join have no easy task to remain among the Kappa Alpha Pi's.

OFFICERS: Robert Litle, president; Arlene Behnfeldt Goshia, secretary.

What would Christmas be without the carolling of DPA? This annual tradition has been a high point of the campus holiday season for years, and one to which everyone looks forward, not just the DPA members.

The members are people who, beside meeting academic requirements, have completed an additional requirement in the study of German. The organization brings together those who wish to continue the study of the language and literature so that they can profit from the DPA programs.

All of this has as its basis the purpose to promote an interest in and understanding of the cultures and language of the German people.

OFFICERS: Dick Heuerman, president; Paul Stengel, vice-president; Teckla Sund, secretary; Gene Sauer, treasurer.

Delta Phi Alpha

Tau Pi Phi

Tau Pi Phi, the honorary business fraternity, does more than uphold the national purposes and aims. It is the sponsor of the Commerce Club. Their support of the more inclusive organization, plus Tau Pi Phi meetings and programs entails much work. The members of the fraternity are all students in the field of business administration and economics, and a high scholastic rating is also a prerequisite.

Each May a banquet is held to which all who have been members are invited. At this time an award is presented to the junior who has attained the highest point average in business and other courses.

OFFICERS: Dick Poth, president; Carolyn Fudge, vice-president.

Tau Kappa Alpha

The purpose of this national honorary fraternity is to give recognition for outstanding ability in debate and public speaking. The State Tournaments for men and women are sponsored by the local chapter. New members of Tau Kappa Alpha are elected each March from students in the field who rank in the upper third of their classes and are in their second year of work in forensics.

The Capital chapter was established in 1929 with six charter members, and now, including graduate members in the seminary and faculty, there are about fifteen TKA's on campus.

Luther League

To Christian groups, Sunday is a day of worship. To add increased religious emphasis to this day, the Luther League of Cap meets on Sunday evenings. The league was formed through the efforts of American Lutheran students who wanted an organization connected with their church, through which they could carry on their religious activities.

The Luther League is affiliated with the national league, and adopts the aims of the Luther League at large: to promote Christian ideals, and to work, learn, play and worship with Christ in the center of all activities. They have added as their group aim to keep all presems, parish workers, and those who will be dealing with the American Lutheran Church, in contact with the functions of the Luther league at large; and to bring the program to a college level.

LSA

Today, more than ever, we need to develop a conscious need of Christ in facing modern life and problems. These are the principles embodied by Capital University's Lutheran Student Association.

Social gatherings of various types, Bible study and prayer groups, and panel discussions are designed to bring the Lutheran students of Capital to the realization of these ideals.

Editors

These are the people behind the book you are reading. They have come to know the names and faces of all Cap students by taking their pictures, and by writing about them and what they do. From the first editorial meeting last spring until the day the Capitalian is distributed to the students, thoughts of pictures, copy, contacts, deadlines, finances, and the Cap Man or Woman have been occupying their pleasures and worries.

Chimes

Editor

Before the Spectator was published, the Chimes was the literary publication at Capital. Now the Chimes has turned to fulfilling the functions of a newspaper.

Editorial Staff

Staying within the bounds of accepted journalistic style, the Chimes presents to the campus body news of importance, feature articles for enjoyment, and editorial views on campus issues. Being a newspaper the Chimes has tried to present news without applying sensationalism or overshadowing the news with modernistic layouts.

It takes the constant work and efforts of the thirty-three staff members to serve the students of Capital in this field.

Spectator

Associate Editors: Wm. Disbro, Rodney Josephson, Donald Shaw, Marline Spille, Bernice Purdon, John Garverick, Gerald Kolberg, Ralph Doermann, Harold Schroeder, Harold Koehler, Paul Carmany, Harry Holzapfel.

When the campus family grew and it was felt a straight newspaper was desirable, the Chimes completed its career as a voice of the budding author and poet, and the Spectator took over. It is now published once or twice each year. Along with original stories, poems and essays, the Spectator also prints music, paintings and sculpture. This makes it possible for almost every student to submit material.

This year the students of Creative Writing and Advanced Composition, taught by George Dell, are the associate editors of the Spectator. Partly a class project and partly an extra-curricular activity, the Spectator has given the students material from which to learn, and has given the student body a magazine that is theirs.

Phi Beta

The influence of Phi Beta is felt on campus and in the community. This is the women's national professional fraternity of music and dramatic arts, Phi Chapter. Chrysanthemums which they sell are seen throughout the stadium at the Homecoming game. Little purple and gold ribbons pinned on sweaters announce the new pledges each fall. In the community these women are known to provide good entertainment in speech and music.

For the individual member, Phi Beta seeks advancement intellectually and socially. As a body Phi Beta promotes the best in music and drama and fosters college spirit and loyalty to our campus. High scholarship, performance and professional achievement are the overall aims of this professional organization.

OFFICERS: Roberta Treon, president; Ellen Zehner, secretary; Beth Bierstedt, vice-president; Margaret Derry Caw, treasurer.

Phi Mu Alpha

A new addition to the group of honorary societies occurred with the installation of the Epsilon Phi chapter of Phi Mu Alpha in April, 1951.

This honorary is open to men of the campus who have a deep interest in and an appreciation of music. The society has a three-fold purpose: to advance the cause of music in America; to foster welfare and brotherhood of students of music; and to encourage loyalty to the alma mater.

Though young in years, this chapter has already established activities for the year. At their meetings held twice each month, speakers and lecturers well-known in the music circle are presented. Social activities also have a place on the calendar as do the formal pledging and initiation ceremonies.

Parish Workers

Future parish workers are an organized group. Through regular meetings they seek to acquaint the women preparing for this field with their future work. At the same time a closer fellowship is developed among the women.

Their monthly programs usually consist of individual demonstrations, speakers, or discussions—all about parish work. They prove of value to the future parish worker by the information which they present, and by the experience the women receive in the participation.

Their social life is not neglected, and the future parish workers look forward each year to the annual Christmas party, their major event.

Social Welfare

Many topics, from campus problems to international situations, are discussed and worked upon by this active group. Forums, panel discussions, settlement house work, cooperation with community welfare programs, and sponsorship of the Campus Chest are a few of the things accomplished in the efforts of this group to broaden the social welfare knowledge and interest among students. They are the mediary group between the faculty, students, and civic welfare agencies.

For the thirty-five members there is much work to do and much work is done. The projects of this group stimulate interest in the field, and provide a medium of experience for those students majoring in social welfare work.

Officers: Genevieve Christensen, president; Bob Brandenburg, vice-president; Howard Federspiel, treasurer; Mary Kettler, secretary.

Leonard Science Club

Organized by and of the science department back in 1919, the Leonard Science Club is not exclusively for the science student. The foundation of this organization has resulted in the bringing of speakers to our campus who talk on various phases of science. The programs are designed to interest the layman as well as the science student. Things of a scientific nature which are used every day are explained, and science is made interesting.

This purpose, to inform the student body of various phases of science, has been sought with lectures on glass and water, among others presented. Picnics and field trips are also a part of the calendar for this group who take advantage of finding out the why and how of things which surround the student.

Officers: Garth Sengelaub, president; Bill Schamadan, vice-president; Arlene Behnfeldt Goshia, secretary; Paul Bernlohr, treasurer.

CEA

Future teachers and teachers of future teachers have joined to form the Capital Education Association, or CEA. All future teachers, grade school, high school or college level, are welcomed into the group. They may hear such interesting speakers as the Rev. Charles Harrison, chaplain, or the state superintendent of schools speak on subjects of interest to all teachers.

Discussions about teacher careers and shop talk in a social atmosphere are all benefits to these future leaders of our children.

The professional interests of future teachers and a professional attitude among these students is of prime importance to this society.

OFFICERS: Don Shaw, president; Carolyn Schultz, vice-president; Irene Hueter, secretary; Virginia Iseringhausen, treasurer.

Commerce Club

The business administration and business education students have their own organization as do most of the other vocational fields on campus. The Commerce Club brings speakers to the campus who present to the students various topics in their area of interest.

Although they sponsor no all-campus social event nor have any social calendar for their members, the people of the Commerce Club find social enjoyment in mutual interests. In the attempt to help further the interest and broaden the knowledge of students who are majors in business administration and education, this organization has a firm position among the organizations of Cap's campus.

Officers: Gerald Vollbrecht, president; Eugene Sauer, vice-president; Ann Kassing, secretary; Jack Guthrie, treasurer.

Political Science Club

Though only a few years old, the Political Science Club promoted the biggest program this year. To put to work the machinery about which they learn, this group extended their program through Columbus and surrounding towns.

On March 22 and 29, mock Republican and Democratic Conventions were held. Students from high schools all over central Ohio arrived at the Campus to promote the candidate they wished to nominate. Basing all procedure on the national conventions, each school represented a state and was represented according to that state's delegates. Party platforms were adopted, state caucuses were held, resolutions were approved, and demonstrations and nominations for the presidency were presented. This was democracy at work.

OFFICERS: J. M. Bell, president; Clark MacPhail, vice-president; Gloria Bauer, secretary; Marian Woelke, treasurer.

Residence Council

Under the guidance of the Dean of Women's Office, representatives of the women in the dorms in 1947 drew up a constitution for the Residence Council. Students on campus see evidence of this group particularly on the five major holidays when special dinners are planned in the Refectory.

Residence Council strives to further the fellowship and the spirit of unity of the women of the university in every possible way; to develop social activities; to encourage individual participation and a sense of responsibility toward each other; and to be a medium by which the Christian standards of the university may be upheld.

OFFICERS: Mildred Crago, president; Evelyn Hirt, vice-president; Frances Sammet, secretary.

With a sincere belief that the conscientious student today is the basis for a better citizen tomorrow, the desire of the International Relations Club has been to become familiar with the foreign policies of our country and to try to comprehend their cause and effect upon the individual student.

The society is affiliated with the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and is a member of the Ohio Valley Regional Conference of International Relations Clubs.

This year the emphasis has been placed on Communism, presented in a graphic series of seven lectures by speakers well-versed in the topic.

Camera Club

The Capital Camera Club was made a permanent member of the campus family of organizations in 1950. In the short time since then a darkroom has been equipped for the use of the club's members and plans include the purchase of more equipment in the future.

In addition to this benefit, lectures, demonstrations and discussions are planned for the regular meetings which will aid the amateur photographer. Prints and ideas are exchanged with similar groups and exhibitions of photographic work are fostered. This is all done by the group on Cap's campus who are interested in photography. Through their mutual cooperation the fellowship of these like-interested people forms the basis for the best in amateur photography.

Synonymous with Cap to the oldsters is the time honored society of Germania. Probably the first active student group on campus, the club has descended to our time. Under the guidance of the "Herr," Germania is made up of interested members of the various German classes.

OFFICERS: Bill Wolf, president; Art Grossman, vice-president; Elizabeth Swetz, secretary.

Our good neighbors to the south have an interesting organization on our campus in the Spanish Club. Made up of students who have taken Spanish or are at present enrolled in a Spanish course, these people lend a gay Latin American note to the campus.

The organization tries to use the Spanish language in informal and real-life situations. This is accomplished at their monthly meetings by providing students with the introduction to native Spaniards and Latin Americans, by presenting skits and reading in Spanish, and by presenting social activities like the Pinata and Mambo party which give a Spanish flavor to the campus activities.

OFFICERS: Dale Young, president; Alice Reutter, vice-president; Martha Carlstrom, secretary; Donna Kingsbury, treasurer.

Under the direction of Mlle. Monnier, the French Club includes the members of the French classes. Its main purpose is to broaden the knowledge of the French language, and the customs and habits of our Gallic allies. The meetings are designed to preserve these customs by singing, games, plays and discussions in French.

Varsity "C"

Varsity sports is important to Cap as it is to other colleges in the country, and Varsity "C" is the springboard organization for the promotion of this interest.

Through the year students witness and participate in activities which reflect each Varsity "C" member's keen enthusiasm for sports. Besides the regular meetings of the organization, where men known for their work in sports are presented, Varsity "C" sponsors a spring dance open to the campus, the sports banquet, and the minstrel show. The minstrel show is proof that Varsity "C" men will act, and not just ask for what they want. Each year some goal is set which has to do with the betterment of sports and sports equipment, and all proceeds from this show go for that purpose. This year the goal is the dedication of the new field house debt free. These are forty men with a purpose who will do everything in their power to see it accomplished.

WRA

Strictly feminine, yet actively participating in all forms of athletics, are the members of WRA. Previously called the Women's Athletic Association, WRA bases its program on the promotion of interest in athletics for women, the development of a high standard of conduct, the development of skill for the worthy use of leisure time, and assistance to individuals in making social adjustments.

The organization now has an active membership of fifty girls who keep busy during the year with the fall and spring picnics, co-rec nights, intercollegiate sports' day, and many other recreational events.

The aim of the organization may be summed up in the participation, not primarily the winning, in all sports.

Ten young men, students of Capital University, have argued for and against the question: "Resolved: that the Federal Government should adopt a Permanent Program of Price and Wage Control."

The discussions were not over cups of coffee, but standing behind rostrums in colleges over Ohio. They began in the fall, gathering material taking notes from newspapers, magazines, speeches, discussing the question pro and con among themselves. When finally the decision was made upon which side of the question each wished to stand, teams were formed, plans devised.

Actual debates began in the early part of November. First there were warm-ups, debates with no decisions. November 10 brought the first decision debate in Cincinnati. The program was sponsored by TKA, and Cap's men won two out of the ten rounds.

About the happiest victory of the year was in Cleveland, April 12. TKA sponsored debate and discussion. There, for the first time in probably 35 years, Cap's team defeated Vermont, one of the toughest teams in the TKA National. During the same weekend of debates and discussions, Michael Eberley placed among the top ten discussers of the convention.

DEBATERS: Michael Eberley, Richard Grahl, Robert Grahl, Russel Grill, George Hartman, Richard Heuerman, Jerry Kolberg, Robert Lynn, Gene Swanger, Tom Williams.

Masquers

Everyone usually wants to be someone else or at least pretend to be someone else in some stage of life. For those who continue with this "theatre disease" Capital has Masquers.

Masquers, using the Greek comedy-tragedy masks as symbol, is one of the largest societies on campus. The Masquer strives to stimulate interest in good drama and to provide working as well as social fellowship among those interested in drama and related arts.

Besides three major productions each year, Masquers provides entertainment and equipment for many other organizations on and off campus. In addition to the dramatic works presented, they have annual social events including a welcome program for freshmen and the early-morning May Day breakfast.

Little needs to be said about the National Red Cross Organization. Too little has been said about the Capital Red Cross. This group of 35 active members is the spark on campus which flames into regular entertainment units for servicemen and hospitalized veterans. They keep the student body in contact with what is being done for others and what they can do for others.

Besides the enjoyment provided for Lockbourne AFB and Chillicothe Veterans Hospital, the Red Cross unit sponsors the Bloodmobile at least twice each year. To those who have never given blood, the many on campus who have, can testify it doesn't hurt a bit. The classes in first aid are another opportunity for students, something which will help them throughout life.

OFFICERS: Elizabeth Frame, president; Kenneth Kittner, vice-president; Gwen Paulin, secretary; Doris Reinke, treasurer; Marge Taylor, Ann Kassing, national councilmen.

Last summer a most unusual opportunity was presented to the Chapel Choir as a whole, and to the individual members also. Forty singers were chosen and, after much rehearsing, the choir embarked in June for a seven-week tour which took them through the southern states, across Texas, up the Pacific Coast, across Canada, and finished in Ohio.

The trip, approximating almost 12,000 miles, included many memorable events such as singing atop Grand Coulee Dam, a reception with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and a visit to Oklahoma A and M.

The members returned with many memories of the West, and the West is left with memories of the Chapel Choir and Capital University.

Chapel Choir

OFFICERS: Fred Peters, manager; Bill Miller, assistant manager; Sarah Dunson, Ellen Golden, secretary-treasurer; Frank Bodor, librarian.

Beginning its twenty-fifth year, the Chapel Choir is known by all as an organization steeped in laurels and tradition. Dedicated to the glory of God, and having as its aim the singing of the best of sacred choral literature, the Choir has attained national prominence.

The working schedule of the Choir includes several week-end tours, numerous home appearances and the mid-semester tour. This year the touring choir of 55 members journeyed to the south, singing in six different states.

In addition to the Christmas and spring concerts, the choir this year has presented the Bach B Minor Mass.

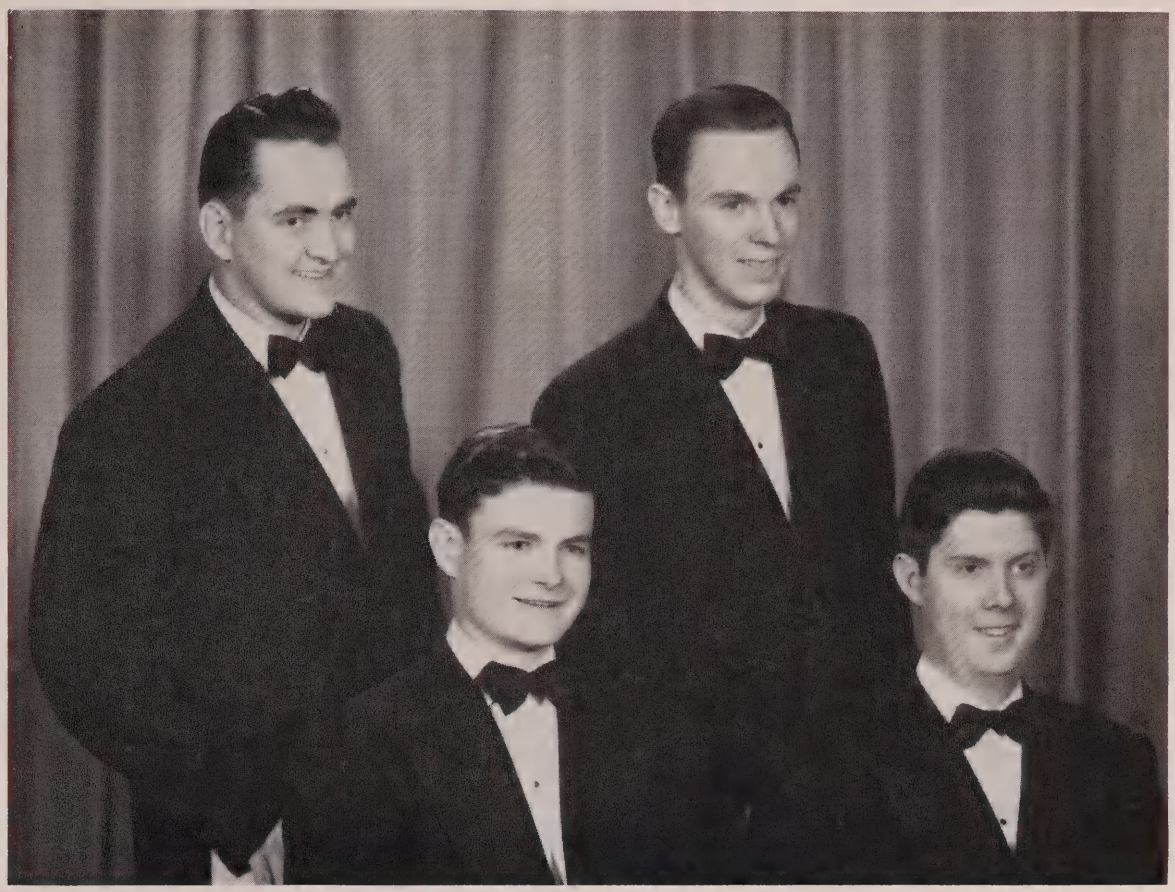
Men's Glee Club



Varsity Quartet

OFFICERS: Ted Menter, president; Paul Stengel, manager; Dan Springer, assistant-manager; Jim McGregor, secretary; Dave Kearney, student director; Beatrice Peterson, accompanist.

The Men's Glee Club is the second-oldest group on campus. This year Mr. Crist celebrated his twenty-fifth year as its director. His ever-present drive and striving for perfection have inspired these men to accomplish the very best in male vocal music.

Each year between semesters the Glee Club bids farewell to Columbus for ten days, and presents to thousands of people their program. This year the men traveled by "dog-sled", they say, through snow and ice, into northern Michigan.

They like to sing together and they like to be together which is proven by their annual social events. Their stag party in the fall and their formal banquet in May are good, happy-singing times for all.

Symphony Orchestra

A source of pleasure to the participant as well as a place for learning is the Symphony Orchestra. Symphonic literature cannot be performed by just any group, nor is it very often that a person has the opportunity to play the work of the masters. At Cap, students who have an active interest in music can do just that.

Although they have not performed for the public this year, those involved enjoy the rehearsals to the utmost. The challenge of Shubert, Beethoven or Saint-Saens never goes unanswered by the orchestra members. Nothing is too great to be untried.

Mr. Crist conducts a group of students who want to do great things in music, and probably shall.

Women's Chorus

Women on campus who wish the opportunity to participate in a musical organization find haven in the Women's Chorus, which is under the capable direction of Gene Taylor. This group of women who love song has come among the touring organizations at Cap. Now, besides the annual Christmas and spring concerts, weekend trips are made to cities in Ohio.

In addition to the chorus, twelve girls are selected to form the Ensemble. This group sings at separate functions to entertain, besides appearing at the regular chorus concerts. The chorus of women, now numbering seventy-five, has grown into another fine musical organization.

OFFICERS: Ann Kassing, president; Carolyn Seyerle, secretary; Eileen Felgar, librarian.

Concert Band

If you play an instrument and would like to join in the performance of good band literature, the Concert Band is open to you through auditions with Mr. Crist. If you like to listen to good band music, take advantage of what is offered right on campus.

The Concert Band presents two major concerts. One is in the spring, and this program is the same as that heard by many people all over Ohio. Each year the band makes at least two week-end tours to towns in Ohio and parts of Michigan and Pennsylvania. The open-air concert presented on the evening of Baccalaureate is one looked upon by students as an example of the best way to hear good music.

Marching Band

What is a football game at half-time without a marching band? The spectators would find a long wait which might even dampen their spirits. The Marching Band provides entertainment and keeps spirits high with new formations and themes each week.

Cap's band, under the direction of John Freytag, works hours in order to present a fifteen- or twenty-minute show. They must practice to obtain both harmony in their music and coordination in their field designs.

Besides this, who is it who keeps the drums rolling during the kickoff? And the burst of music for a touchdown? The Marching Band.

Officers: Fred Grumley, manager; Ralph Liebchen, assistant manager; Shirley Peters, secretary.

. . . Athletics

The New Gymnasium

On June 4, 1951, among all the other events of Commencement, President Yochum broke the first ground for the new gymnasium. The long awaited event took precedent as everyone looked to the future.

Much of the credit for the victory of the new gym is due to the Capital Men's Luncheon Club. They've been seen for the last several years at athletic contests, lending a hand to promote the gym funds. Each homecoming game they sold programs, presenting the proceeds to the gym fund. Their energy and hard work will be a part of the behind-the-scenes memories of CAP's newest building. PICTURED: seated, Oscar Wiechers; standing, Luther Long, Richard Bohl, Jr., Robert Wray.

Everyone has dreams. Some people plan for dreams, some people work for dreams. When the first dream was begun for the new gymnasium, many thought that's all it was. Even when plans were drawn and architects' sketches were printed others could think no farther ahead. But the dream workers did work.

It all began in 1945 when Loy auditorium was no longer adequate to serve the campus for athletics. Since then, students, faculty, alumnae and friends have been working toward the common goal of a new gymnasium, dedicated debt-free. $335,000 was the amount needed. It was fun to think of new and clever ways to earn it.

Jugs appeared on various tables in the Union and other buildings and everyone watched as they were filled with pennies. The jug appeared again during the half-time of basketball games. Varsity "C" presented a minstrel show to raise funds, a program which may become an annual event. A variety show was planned by the seniors. Alumnae, such as Francesco Serra, have returned to the Campus at various times to offer their services with proceeds going to the new gym. Basketball games were staged, alumnae vs. varsity, and the receipts were poured into the jug. Girls sold locks of hair to the highest bidder, and then watched the pennies grow. The CMLC sold homecoming programs as a part of their contribution. Everyone has worked and are still working.

At this date $309,000 has been received in gifts and pledges. The dream of a gymnasium, one which seats 2300 and will serve the needs of a growing university, has been dreamed, planned, and worked. Now that dream is near completion, and everyone always knew it could be done.

Football

Opening the season with a new coaching staff composed of Jack Landrum, Bill Range, and Denver Wood, the Capital footballers brought about a complete reversal from past form. The Capsters, under Captain Charles Meyers, won two and tied one of their seven games, displaying a brand of ball that had long been missing from these parts.

Sparked by a brilliant group of frosh, and steadied by the experience of a few holdovers from last season, the Lutherans ended their losing streak of fourteen defeats. The streak had extended into its third season and was brought to a close in the season's second outing at the expense of Hiram's Terriers.

COACHES

CAPITAL 14—WILMINGTON 35

Opening the season against the Quakers from Wilmington, the untried 1952 edition of the Lutherans made several mistakes resulting in Quaker scores. Playing good ball except for these, the Capsters ran up 14 points on their new scoreboard and thus doubled 1950's production in their first game.

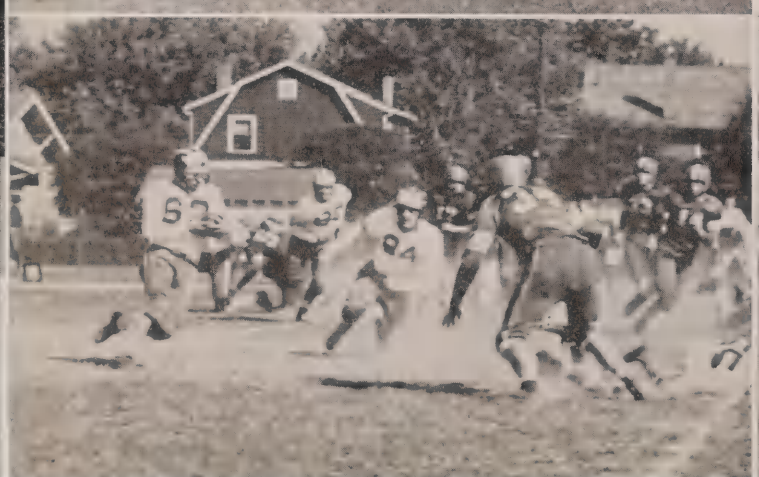
With the score going against them 20-0, Capital broke the ice with a 4-yard second quarter pass from quarterback Bob Bernlohr to end Gordon Meske to climax a 34-yard march. Bruce McGinnis made the first of his two extra point tries and the scoreboard read 20-7.

In the fourth, a combination of Jack Cherrington to Bob Kavanaugh, which was to be prominent throughout the season, clicked on a 60-yard pass play. McGinnis added the point to end the scoring.

CAPITAL 6—MARIETTA 6

Marching into Marietta sporting a 1-1 record, Cap got a bad case of fumble-itis and crept home with a tie.

Marietta scored first by recovering a Cap fumble in the end zone. Cap came back in the second period and scored on a Cherrington to John Young pass. An offside penalty gave the Capsters two chances at the extra-point. Their futile try set the tone for the remainder of the game.



CAPITAL 16—HIRAM 7

Taking their first victory since 1949, the Cap footballers came from behind in their second game of 1951 to put Hiram away to the tune of a 16-7 score.

The Lutherans scored first mid-way in the opening period when a 51-yard pass from Bob Bernlohr to Jim Congrove clicked for six points. Hiram then struck back to lead 7-6.

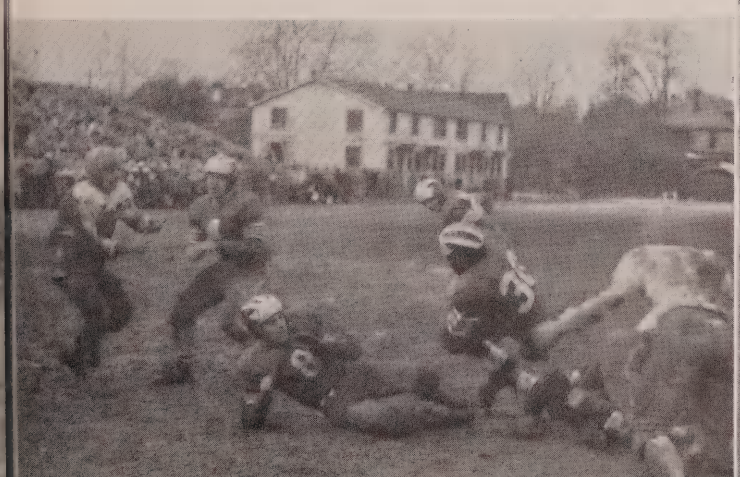
Late in the third period Cap came down to the Terrier's eight-yard line and when unable to score, Bruce McGinnis dropped back to the 18-yard stripe and booted the field goal that put Cap ahead to stay at 9-7.

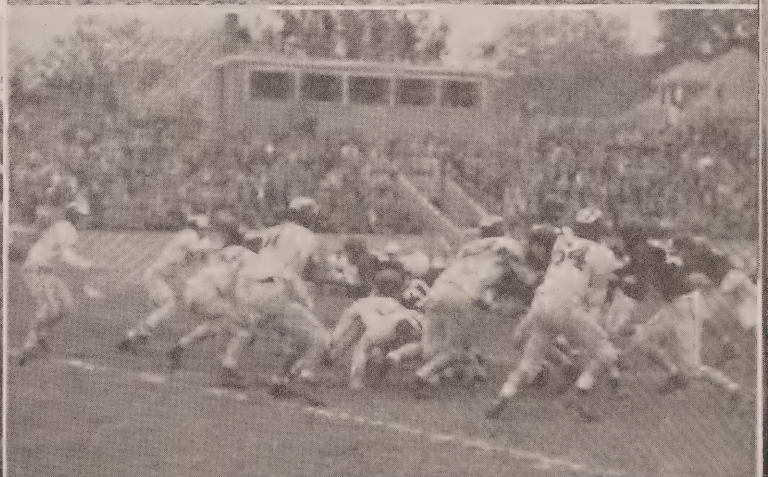
The Purple and White then added an insurance TD through a Cherrington-Meske pass. McGinnis added the extra point to make the final score Capital 16—Hiram 7.

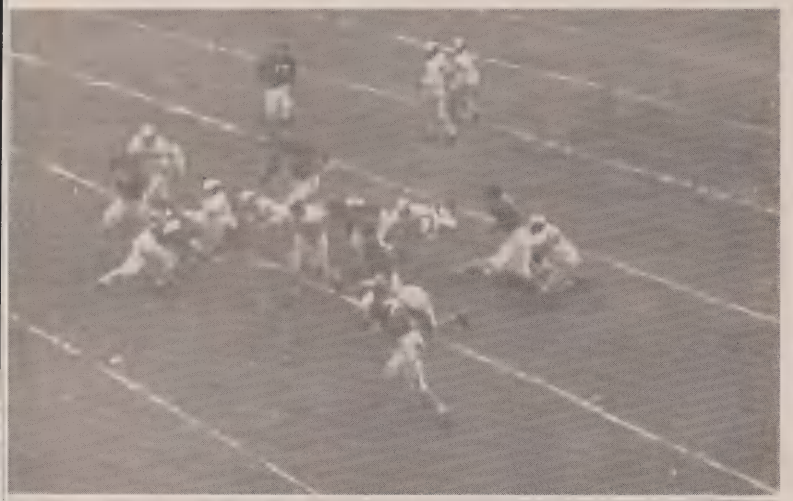
CAPITAL 14—HEIDELBERG 35

In the fourth game of the season the Purple and White saw too much of Paul Yackey, the Princes' star back. Yackey's 21-point spree in the second quarter gave the Princes their margin of victory.

Capital's two touchdowns came on a sparkling 94-yard kick-off return by Fred Davis to open the second half, and a 4-yard pitch out to back Ron James who carried around right end for the score.







CAPITAL 27—KENYON 34

Trading TD's throughout the game, Cap ended on the short end of a 34-27 score.

Jack Cherrington figured in all four scores. He threw a pitch out to Ron James who went 37 yards for the first score, then proceeded to throw passes of 27 yards to end Jim Congrove and two of 22 yards each to Bob Kavanaugh. Fred Davis and Harold were the stalwarts of the defensive game.

CAPITAL 14—OTTERBEIN 20

After trailing 14-0, Cap staged a comeback that just fell short at the 20-14 score. Taking advantage of the breaks, Otterbein was able to capitalize on them for two quick scores.

After McGinnis had gone 51 yards, Cherrington threw to Kavanaugh for the first score. Otterbein then scored the clincher and Cap came roaring back on an 87-yard drive led by McGinnis and Roy Gruenburg who tallied the score.

CAPITAL 18—OHIO NORTHERN 6

Surprising the favored Polar Bears, the Lutherans came up with a relentless rushing attack spearheaded by the bull-like running of Roy Gruenburg, Ron James, and Bud Shell to run their record to two wins, three losses, and a tie.

Packing two scores into the last six minutes of the first half, Cap had a 12-0 cushion at half time. The first score by Fred Davis climaxed a 44-yard drive. The second TD was the result of a 30-yard Cherrington to McGinnis pass.

The lead was increased to 18-0 when Cherrington passed to Hal Horton at the seven, Gruenburg rammed to the one, and senior Hardee Hepler carried over for the score.

Basketball

Once again courtmen were found without a court to call their home, when the new Men's Physical Education Building was delayed in construction. Though they had to play the majority of their games away, and their home games on the Bexley court, Mr. Bill's boys came up with an over-all record of 13 wins and four losses. By finishing with a 12-3 record in the Ohio Conference, the Lutherans wound up in the second slot of the 14 team league.

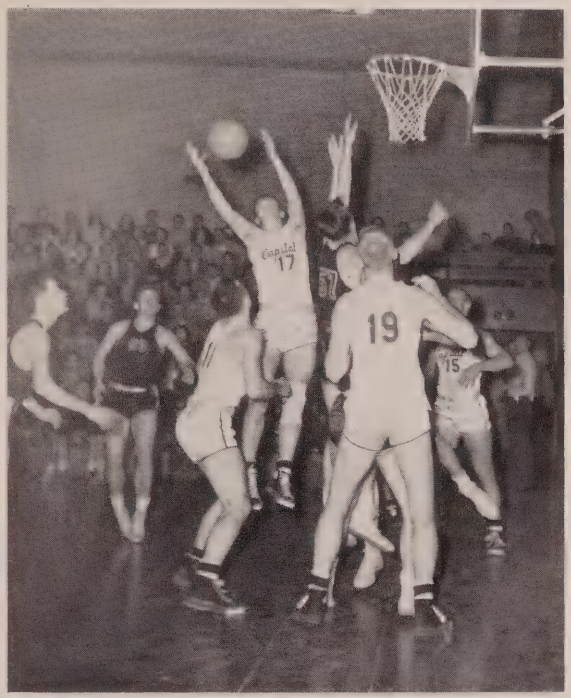
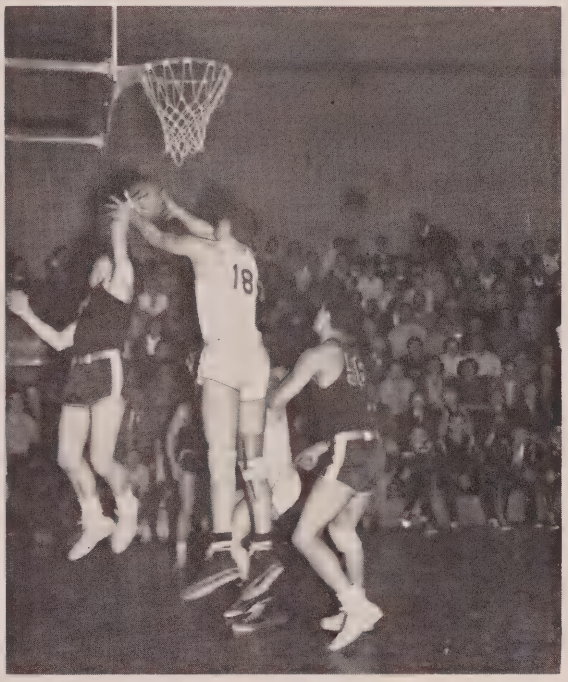
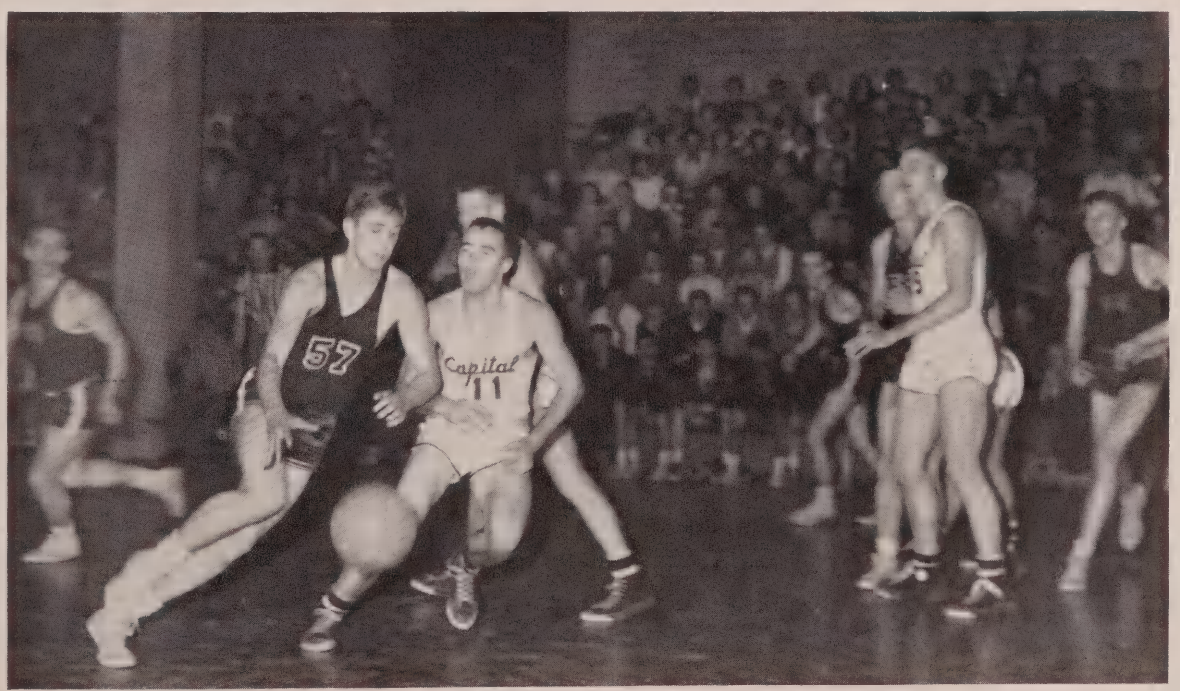
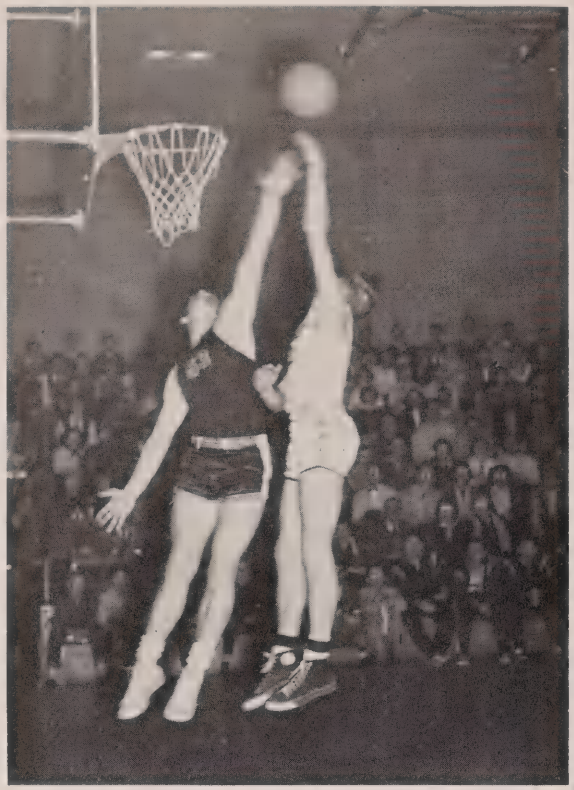
John Horn: Co-captain for the year 1952, John turned in the usual steady performance for which he has become noted during his three years on the varsity. In his role of non-scoring defenseman, John often successfully broke up two and three man rushes.





Dick Snouffer: In his second year as co-captain, Dick again showed the speedy, aggressive attributes of a fine guard. Acting the role of a captain, Dick took over as floor leader and often carried the burden of scoring, when one of the regulars had a bad night.





The 1951-52 season brought along its share of basketball experiences. Both Bernlohr forwards rewrote the Capital individual scoring records. Bob Bernlohr cracked Dick Ott's 1947 total of 332 by two points and cousin Pug Bernlohr also topped the old record with a total of 333. Senior guard and co-captain John Horn contributed the most spectacular shot when he flipped in a two-pointer over his head as he was falling out of bounds at the Bexley Gym. Pug took first string All-Conference honors and Bob cornered a second team berth. The other senior and co-captain Dick Snouffer led the Lutherans in their return victory over OWU with 24 points. Capital did not lose a series, splitting two games with Wilmington, Wesleyan, Otterbein, and Kenyon. Centers Paul Katterhenrich and ing 19.65 and 19.59 points per game respectively. Four of the first string members, Bob, Pug, Kat, and Dick turned in averages of better than 10 points per game.

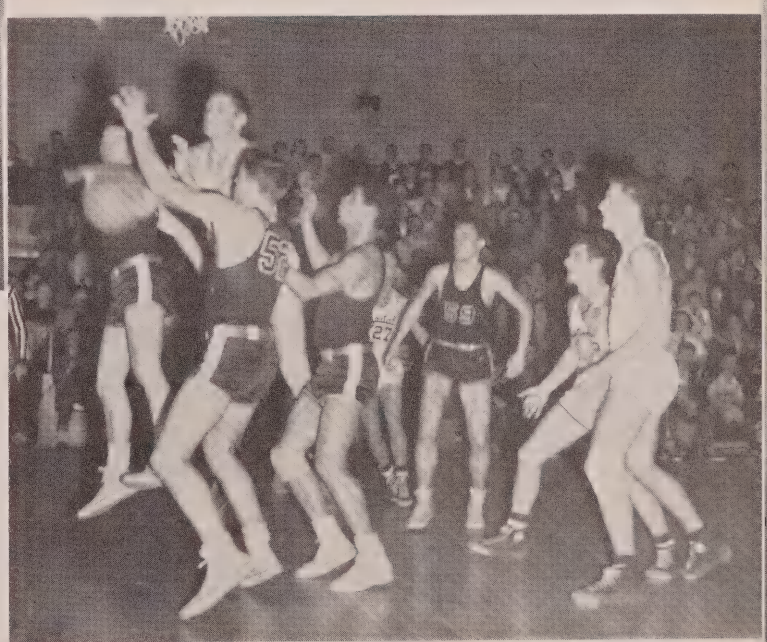
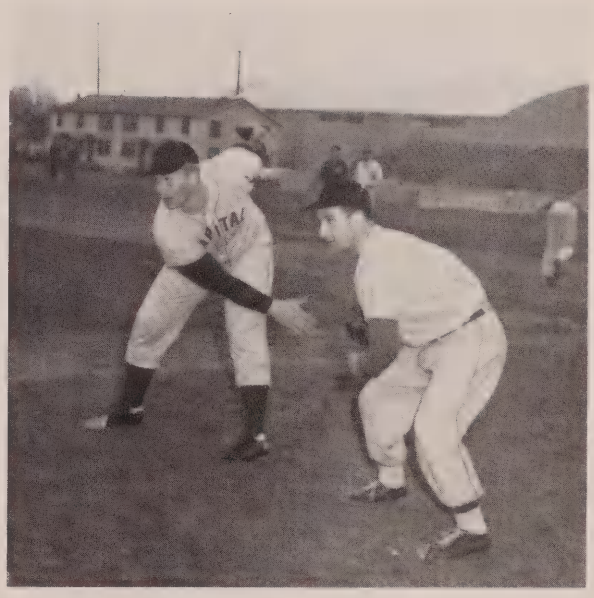
Again Mr. Bill turned out a sparkling court machine from an aggregation mainly composed of holdovers from last season's team, which ran out of steam mid-way through the season. With his remarkable sense of picking his material to suit the spot for which it was needed, Mr. Bill time and again took reserves off the bench to have them turn in sparkling performances. Some of these players who exhibited sterling performances were Dale Griesinger, Bill Voris, Hardee Hepler, Dale Falknor, and Dick Poth.

Prospects are bright for next season as our two high-flying forwards, Bob and Pug, return along with centers Katterhenrich and Rice. These returning starters, coupled with some experienced guard material, should inaugurate the new playing floor in grand style.



Mr. Bill Bernlohr, baseball mentor for the 23rd consecutive year as of 1952, had to fill in the vacant spots left by graduation and the draft. The hardest hit were his mound corps and outfield where he lost two starting pitchers and his regular center and right field gardeners. Working from his holdovers, catcher Pug Bernlohr, pitchers Ken Hush and Dick Vogel, first baseman Jerry Essinger, second shortstop combination Dick Boehler and Don Shaw, and left fielder Jay Essinger, Mr. Bill came up with five freshmen and a sophomore to fill his vacancies. These are: outfielders Bob Bernlohr and Amos White, pitchers Gordon Elowsky and Paul Eckelberry, and third basemen Phil Spieth and Ray Vogel.

Baseball



Tennis

With his two top men gone from last year's squad, Coach John Young had to come through with a complete rebuilding job on a tennis team that showed no great strength last year. After considerable testing of material, Coach Young came up with Jack Guthrie, Dave Jones, Bill Jones, Paul Andrews, Bob Schram and Bob Snyder as his singles contestants. Jack Guthrie and Bob Schram, and Dave Jones and Bob Snyder were his two doubles combos.

Track

Starting this season later than usual because of the late Easter vacation, Coach Jack Landrum has not had much opportunity to show off his men. As the team shaped up, Coach Landrum probably had a better basis on which to build than any of the other spring sports. With a good group of returning lettermen including Bill Paule, Cliff Tallman, George Wilch, Roy Gruenburg and John Braun to work in with the new freshmen coming up. The team should fare well in this year's outings.

In their first match, Capital trailed Wesleyan 96-31. The Capsters came through with three firsts. Two of them were by first year men, Earl Davidson in the mile and Leon Smith in the 100-yard dash. John Braun picked up the extra win in the 2-mile run. Cliff Tallman set a new Cap record of 50.8 for the 440 which was good for a third-place finish.

Intramural Sports

The intramural softball league came roaring down to the wire with a three-way finish for the playoffs, which Hofman's Annex took in two straight one-run wins from the Madmen and the Bandits. The crowning blow was pitcher Jim Boehm's homer with one on and two out in the top of the seventh. The tournament was also annexed by Boehm and the Hofmen as they defeated the hard-hitting Abes in the finals by a score of 9-6.

The Dorks captured the intramural football toga with a 5-0 record, trailed by the Bandits and the Abes. Starting the season with a surprise win over the Bandits, the Dorks proceeded to roll over all opposition. The six-team race was one of the most interesting in years, with most games being decided by one touchdown.

Dividing into three leagues, the intramural hotshots raced through their schedule into a six-team tournament. The first place finishers in each league were SAE, Greyhounds and the Gridiron Grapplers. The Greyhounds and the Gridiron Grapplers had perfect slates. After the other team had been eliminated, SAE took the win from the Gridiron Grapplers to become undisputed intramural champs.

Women's Sports

The Women's athletic program here at Capital, directed by the Misses Heyman and Hornshaw, includes hockey, Volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis, table tennis, and badminton.

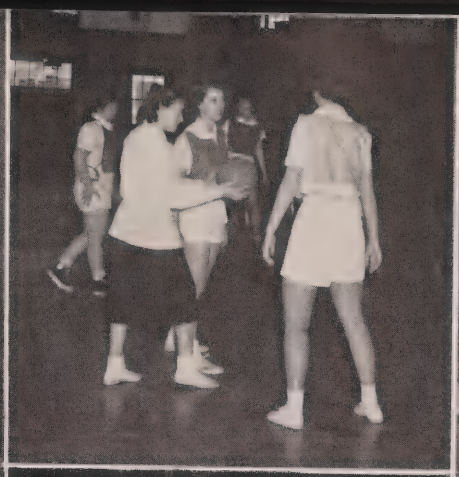
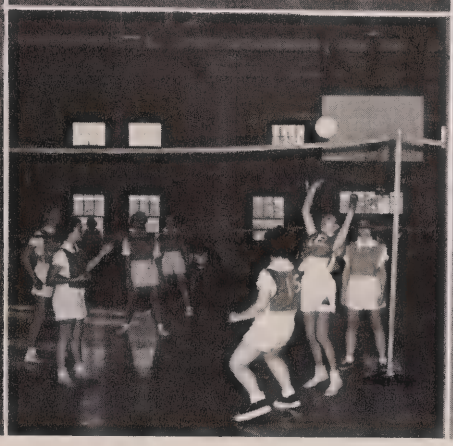
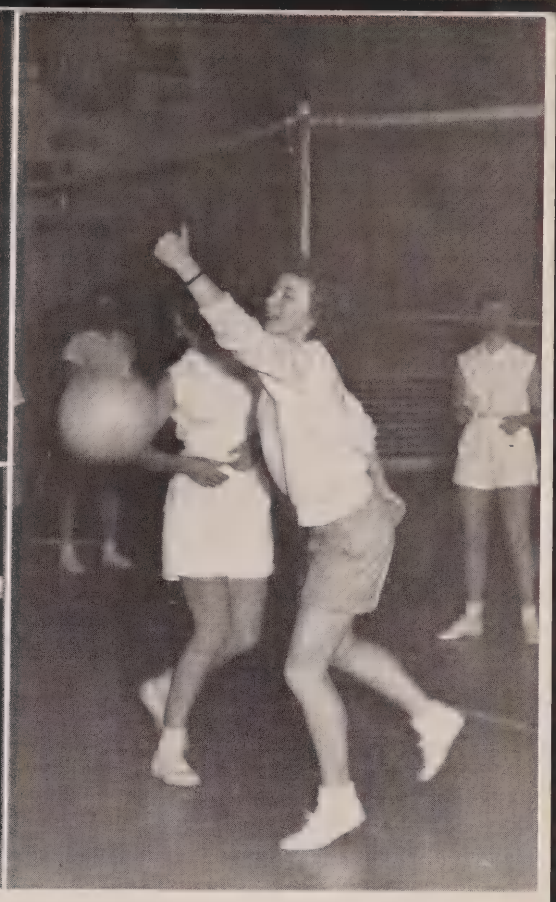
J. Bergman and D. Sherer each captured two individual sport's titles, the former winning the singles tennis tournament, and the latter teaming up with M. Seidenschwartz to take the doubles table tennis crown and both combining to take top honors in the doubles badminton tournament. Other singles champs were S. Butts in table tennis and D. Hueter in badminton.

A feature new to college campuses was first introduced this year in the form of Co-Rec nights in which men and women participated in organized intramural and intercollegiate teams of volleyball, table tennis and badminton.







National "A" Official's Ratings were earned this year by M. Schafer and J. Boehm in volleyball, and basketball, respectively. M. L. Lautenschlager and M. Schager earned intramural ratings in basketball. Those already having their ratings in volleyball include J. Boehm, M. L. Lautenschlager, D. Hueter, and M. Seidenschwartz, with the latter two also holding National "A" ratings in basketball.

Homecoming Court

November 3, 1951

Everyone goes to the game at Homecoming. None would want to miss the parade, the gay banners, the mums, the coronation of the queen. Old Grads have returned to cheer for the Big Team and to greet old friends.

The band parades in its best form, while Varsity "C" coffee keeps the spectators warm inside coats and blankets. The home team never looks quite so wonderful as it does on Homecoming. And dormitories never look quite so clean as they do for the open house. Guided tours through ships and trains show the fun and imagination barracks men have.

After the cold air and exercise it's nice to sit and be entertained by students in their annual drama. Even more warming is the dancing in the transformed refectory. And the warmest of all is the good feeling that comes to all at Homecoming.

Concert-Lecture Series

Cornelia Otis Skinner

Each year the Concert-Lecture Series brings a series of diversified programs to round out the cultural activities of the campus. This year the programs were extremely well chosen and presented something of interest to each student on campus.

The biggest event on the Concert-Lecture Series program was the evening of readings presented by Cornelia Otis Skinner. The character sketches, which were originated by Miss Skinner, kept students, faculty and friends highly entertained, and the committee who arranged the evening knew they had scored well on October 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bird returned to the Mees stage with lecture and colored movies, this year presenting wild life of South America. The Bird's view of insect and animal life never ceases to be fascinating.

The last of the series introduced Miss Ida Krehm to Cap. Miss Krehm, who displayed a flawless technique and a deep understanding of the music, presented a well balanced program of the classics and moderns.

Chapel

Chaplain Owens

Part of the Cap family spirit is displayed in our daily worship periods of Chapel in Mees Hall. This year under a new plan, Chapel is held three days a week on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Tuesday and Thursday are reserved for such events as Student Government and Concert-Lecture Series programs.

During Lent each Wednesday was devoted to the study of some great religious painting. At other times the musical organizations have presented inspiring worship in song, and the visits of prominent clergymen in the city and church officers have been outstanding.

Behind the Scenes

Vespers

Vespers observed its first anniversary this year of fulfilling the spiritual needs of the student's life. The evening services were begun and are continued under the sponsorship of CSF. Every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evening, the tower chimes call out to the surrounding neighborhood that it is time for worship.

The services are held in Divinity Hall Chapel and conducted by Seminarians. The type of service varies from simple hymnsings to more elaborate liturgical services. The college student feels the comfort and strength derived from such gatherings and thus the continuance of Vespers is assured.

Winter Wonderland

Mid the tinkle of sleigh bells, the fall of snow, and an atmosphere of holly, mistletoe, and pine trees, KSU once again produced its Winter Wonderland.

Light seemed to filter down from stars overhead. Lamp posts gave a soft light to the dancing couples. The Spanish Christmas colors, green and yellow, spread cheer everywhere. It is a never-ending source of amazement how the gym, through a magical transformation, is made into a winter playground.

The dancing and holiday cheer has long been a major feature in the social whirl of the KSU man, and this year, by making it an open event, Winter Wonderland was for the enjoyment of the entire campus.

Sweetheart Formal

Considered by most as the outstanding dance and social event of the year, the annual Sweetheart Formal, sponsored by KST, was again held at the Valley Dale. The girls and their chosen escorts danced to the music of Chuck Selby and his orchestra.

An atmosphere of Valentine's Day and romance surrounded the couples. Hearts were in evidence everywhere, particularly the huge heart entrance at the foot of the stairs which entered upon the dance floor.

Besides the refreshments and gay chatter during the intermission, the sorority members sang their toast song. More dancing and fun were the orders for the evening, which was crowned by the special permission to continue past the usual 12:30 deadline.

Religious Emphasis Week

Even on a campus that was founded on the principles of enlightenment, morality, and education, it is well perhaps to set aside a special time when the entire campus devotes an extra measure of time to Christ-centered activities. This time on our campus is known as Religious Emphasis Week. Under the auspices of CSF, outstanding speakers of the church are invited to Cap to speak on the theme selected for the year. This year the theme was "A Living Faith." The speakers were Pastor Oliver Grotefend and Pastor Stanley D. Schneider.

May Day

It's difficult to express just what May Day is. It is a weekend in May, a queen, floats, play, dance, but much of it is just the feeling one experiences in the midst of the festivities. The campus swarms with alumni, parents, students, and their friends. Decorations are spread from one end of the campus to the other, saying, "Have a wonderful time." So long as there is a spring, Cap will have its May Day.

Commencement

At no other time in life does a person feel so much accomplishment and anticipation of the future accomplishment as at commencement. One phase of life is completed and another, bigger and greater, begins.

The thrill, the challenge are all one. Friends will scatter, be married, settle into jobs and perhaps never see their classmates for many years. When old friends are met, years later, there is a bond, the link of having been graduated together, which can bridge the chasm of time.

From Friend To Friend

There is a close kinship between Capital University and the Wartburg Press. Both are official institutions of the same parent body, the American Lutheran Church.

The students of Capital University are regarded as good friends of the Wartburg Press family. A goodly number of young people of Cap are, in fact, members of the Press family; and, of course, there are many alumni of the school who have working headquarters at 57 E. Main Street.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the Wartburg Press takes this opportunity to extend greetings and congratulations to the Cap students who at the close of this school year will be passing important milestones in their careers.

Just as Capital University is making plans for growth and greater service in the future, so the Wartburg Press is planning the growth and progression which is an essential feature in any living organization.

We of the Wartburg Press propose that the friendships which have developed between the students of Cap and ourselves shall continue through the years that lie ahead. We invite the students of today, who will be our professional people of tomorrow, to remember that we are here to serve. To those who are members of the American Lutheran Church we would offer the reminder that they are, in effect, stockholders in this business.

depends our freedom!

The Holy Bible . . . bulwark of your Christian faith and your right to worship in the church of your choice.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A Door Key . . . providing for you the right to lock your door against illegal intrusion by anybody, be he private citizen or government official.
(Fourth Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A Pencil . . . the freedom to speak or write what you think so long as you do not infringe on the equal rights of others.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A Free Ballot . . . permitting you to choose your own officials to serve you under the kind of government you prefer.
(Article 1, U. S. Constitution)

These symbols have no meaning in countries where government controls everything; for there the individual has NO freedom.
Men have died to leave you these four symbols of freedom; Don't lose them through negligence.
